Disasters. Brig Effort, Koopman, for Port Leon, with a cargo o merchandize, while lying at anchor off Quarantine, near Long Island, took fire on Saturday at 1 past 5 o'clock A M, from some cause unknown. When first discovered in the cabin, boats from Staten Island and Long Island, also steamboat Wave, went to her assistance. The W towed her ashore, while the persons on board were employed in trying to extinguish the flames. Some combustibles exploded, and three persons were thrown overboard, and slightly injured, viz.; Capt John Bennet of Long Island, James McGee of Staten Island, and several others. . . Capt Koopman declared there was no powder on board.

and in the Side and Breast, Headache &c.—Wright's ludian Vegetable Pills are a direct purifier of the blood, and a certin cure for every description of pain, because they expel from the body those stagnant and corrupt humors, which are the cause of every malady tocident to man.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills also aid and improve digestion, and purify the blood, and therefore not only drive diseases of every mane from the body, but are one of the best, if not the very best medicines in the world, for the cure of floot the very best medicines in the world, for the cure of colds described the large means and other diseases.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills will be found also to aid and improve digestion and purify the blood, and therefore not only make a radical cure of jaundice, but at the same time site new life and vigor to the whole frame.

all that honesty of intention and stability of purpose which has made him the admiration of his friends and the terror of his opponents.

Resolved. That with us and our party, we desire no concealment of our principles and no holding back of the names of those whom we desire to carry out those principles—that in our opinion that in frank, free and maily discussion is our greatest strength, and that we recommend to every section of the country to preserve the same manly and open course of our friends in Temessee, North Carolina and Maryland at the last election, which resulted in such signal triumphs.

Resolved. That the thanks of the whole country are due to Governor Jones for the open avowal of his principles, and that he went to battle under the great Whig Banner, on whose folds, with a gigantic faith, he inscribed the Whig principles and the great and glorious name of the Chivalrous CLAY!

Resolved. That we are uncompromising in favor of the Farmer of Ashland as our Candidate for the next Presidency, and that in this Man of the Nation, the Representative of all the great American interests, the exponent and embodiment of Whig Principles, the Protector of Human Liberty and American Industry, we have the most certain guarantee of the perpetuity of our free Institutions and the general advancement of all the American Interests.

Resolved, That we hail, with unmingled joy and friumich, the fact that, in all sections of the Union, and by all varieties of party sentiment, HENRY CLAY is now unanimously recognized as the sole candidate of the Whig party for the Fresidency of the United States.

Resolved, That our satisfaction at this present avowed unanimity and our confidence in this result shall not diminish our vigilance against either open external hostility or secret inter-

al treachery,

Resolved, That, having had one solemn lesson on the selection of a Vice President, if we do not profit by it now, we shall never deserve success or attain it.

Resolved. That, having before suffered by the selection of a false friend of HENRY CLAY, henceforth we will tolerate no candidate for the Vice Presidency who is not a true, warm,

W.M. P. LYON, A. M., Principal. The Invisible Wig so closely resembles the real head of hair that sceptics and comouseurs have pronounced it the most perfect and extraordinary invention of the day. The great advantage of this novel and unque Wig to its being made without sewing or weaving, which causes its apperances so closely to resemble the natural hour, both in lightness and natural appea ance, as to defy detection, its texture being so beautiful, so porous and so free, that in all cases of perspiration evaporation is minimpeded, and the great evils of other Wigs entirely avoided. The sceptic and connoisseur aralike invited to inspect this novel and beautiful Wig, and the peculiar method of fitting the head, at the manufacturer's, A.
